

THE VOTE IN KINGS COUNTY.

CLEVELAND'S PLURALITY 15,452.

THE DEMOCRATS GENERALLY SUCCESSFUL—TANNER
BADLY BEATEN—ONE REPUBLICAN CONGRESS-
MAN AND TWO ASSEMBLYMEN.

The news in regard to the Presidential election was awaited with feverish interest in Brooklyn all yesterday morning, and until decisive dispatches were received in the afternoon. At midnight on Tuesday City Hall Square was a sea of faces and umbrellas, and men stood for hours in the mud and rain reading the scant bulletins displayed, and cheering and shouting to keep up the excitement. Fully 5,000 men and women waited until the early morning hours, and daybreak found some of them still hungering for news, and the morning papers failed to satisfy them. The Tribune was in eager demand with its hopes for Blaine after the early news of Cleveland's success. The supply at the principal news stands was soon exhausted and many persons waited until more could be sent for. Women appeared as eager as men to learn if Blaine was elected.

Court and Montague sts., near the telegraph offices and the Republican headquarters, were thronged all day yesterday, some faces looking as if they had remained there all night. The places of all who went away were speedily filled. The bulletin that Virginia had gone for Blaine was the signal for a great shout. At 2:30 p.m. a dispatch giving assurance that Blaine's plurality in this State would be 6,000 was forwarded to the office of the Kings County Campaign Committee, where ex-Congressman Chittenden, Senator Daggett, Major E. H. Hobbs and others were awaiting news. Mr. Daggett went to the steps of the building and read it in a triumphal tone. At once a wild shout rent the air and cried of "Blaine, Blaine, James G. Blaine," were heard on every hand. A copy of the dispatch was afterward displayed at Court and Montague sts., and read by many persons who went away with rejoicing faces. The following tables show the vote for President in Kings County:
